Levi Smith Admrs with will

Berkshire ss. At a Court of Probate, holden at Lenox within and for the County of Berkshire, on the fifth day of September A.D. 1815. before the Hon. William Walker Esq. Judge of said Court.

A Settlement of the personal estate of Elisha Smith late of Sandisfield in said County, deceased. testator, according to his last will and testament. as ordered by the said Judge —

The whole amount of the Personal Estate of said testator, including his rights and Credits and the proceeds of the sale of part of his real estate, as sold by order of Court, as appears by the Executor's accounts which have been allowed by the said Judge is two thousand, one hundred, seventeen dollars and ten cents —— $2117,10

The whole amount of the accounts of the said Executor, against said Estate for the payment of debts due from said estate, the expenses of settling the same, and funeral charges, as appears by his said accounts, is fifteen hundred, & and one dollars and ninety nine cents — $1501.99

Which last mentioned sum being deducted, leaves in the hands of the said Executor a balance of Six hundred, fifteen dollars and eleven cents —— $615,11

It is thereupon ordered and decreed by the said Judge, that the said balance be divided and paid to the Legatees of said testator, as follows viz —

To Grace Smith, the widow of said testator, all his household goods or furniture appraised at one hundred sixty four dollars and sixty four cents — One good Saddle Horse at thirty five dollars — One Side Saddle & bridle at four dollars and fifty cents — Two good Cows at thirty seven dollars — and ten Sheep at ten dollars and fifty cents. Amounting in all to $251,64

To the Children of Testator's daughter, the wife of John Deland, who were born before the ninth day of September 1800 — fifty dollars, to be equally divided between them & to be paid when they respectively arrive to lawful age —

To Ruth the wife of Joseph Jones, daughter of said testator thirteen dollars and forty seven cents, being the residuary part of a legacy of one hundred dollars, of which eighty six dollars & fifty three cents ~~was charged against her~~ is paid her as acknowledged by her receipt

To Lucretia the wife of William Logan, a legacy of one hundred dollars, but as that sum is wholly ~~charged~~ ~~against her~~ acknowledged by the receipt, to be paid her. there remains nothing due to her

To Tryphena the wife of Elisha Allen One hundred dollars.

To Polly, the wife of Ira Reed one hundred dollars

To Huldah a daughter of said testator one hundred dollars

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and seal of said Court

William Walker.

Simons Couple, Descendants Of Pioneers, Wed 50 Years

BY MRS. D. W. RENNER

SIMONS, Dec. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] A. Smith will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday, Dec. 29, at their home.

Owing to the ill health of Mrs. Smith, elaborate plans for the event have been abandoned. An anniversary dinner will be given for the immediate members of the families. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be glad to see their friends or to hear from them.

Miss Mollie B. Taber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Addison Taber of Minerva, O., and J. A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Smith of Williamsfield, were united in marriage Dec. 29, 1886, at the home of the bride's parents.

As Miss Taber, the bride had been a student in Austinburg, and taught school until her marriage.

Mrs. Smith was born April 10, 1865. Mr. Smith's birthday was April 26, 1860.

The young couple began their married life in the house where they now live, which was built in 1827 by Mr. Smith's grandfather, Levi Smith. It was the birthplace of Jesse Smith and his father, Newton Smith. Frame houses were scarce in 1827, and this was one of the first built in the township.

The fifty years spent on the old family farm gives evidence of thrift of the occupants. The land has been tiled, and some fields innoculated for growth of alfalfa, other fields brought up to produce large crops of potatoes. The barns have been improved and modernized. The 110-year-old residence has steam heat, running water, bath, electric refrigeration, stove, washer and mangle.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith's only daughter, Mrs. Hester Lgoan, with her husband, Floyd Logan and their two sons, left their home to come to the old homestead to live. Mrs. Logan is giving splendid care to her mother during her illness.

Elgy N. Smith, the only son, died seven years ago at his home in Great Falls, Mont., leaving a daughter, Miss Suthers Smith, who is spending a few weeks with her grandparents. Elgy's little son died a year ago.

Mrs. Smith's only living sister is Mrs. J. H. Allmon of Alliance, her brother, Addison Taber of Salem, O. Mr. Smith's sisters are Mrs. Esther French of Andover, Mrs. Ida Bridgeman of Sunnyside, Wash.

History of the Smith homestead dates back 122 years. Josiah, Levi and Daniel Smith lived in Berkshire county, Mass. They purchased a tract of land from the Connecticut Land Co. The two elder brothers, Josiah and Levi with their wives, in company with other young people seeking homes in the far west, journeyed to Ohio in covered wagons, bringing the best of their possessions with them.

They had the New England thrift and before many years passed owned well-cared for farms, and soon erected good buildings. Josiah Smith was a cabinet maker, his work still in good preservation shows skill. Fine carving in old houses is still to be seen.

Daniel Smith, much younger brother, was not married. He stayed in Virginia for a period to learn his trade of fuller and dyer. It was a trade which brought much work to his mill in the eastern part of Williamsfield.

Levi Smith established his home in the part now the center of the township. He gave the land upon which the Methodist church was built.

His sons, William, Elliott and Newton were given homesteads, which each developed in to fine property. His only daughter, Lorinda, married Henry Simons, whose parents had moved from Maryland to Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simons lived in East Williamsfield. Mr. Simons gave a tract fo land when the railroads was being built, and was recompensed by the company changing the name of the place to Simons, in honor of the donor.

Mrs. Grace Smith, after her sons, Levi, Josiah and Daniel had built comfortable log houses, left her Massachusetts home and came to live with her sons in the much newer country, where there were even more hardships.

She brought things that she cherished, a dozen solid silver table spoons, a dozen solid dessert spoons, and her solid teaspoons, all beautifully hammered and engraved by a silver smith.

Mrs. Grace Smith was buried in the Roberts burying ground on the Wayne side of the road between Wayne and Williamsfield. Mr. Coleman, one of the Boston Tea Party heroes, lies in the same place of burial.

To all People to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting.

Joseph Jones … to Abner Miller …

Know ye, That I, Joseph Jones of Sandisfield, in the County of Berkshire, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Yeoman

For and in consideration of the sum of One hundred and eighty Dollars to me in hand paid, before the ensealing hereof, by Abner Miller of Sandisfield in the County & Commonwealth aforesaid Yeoman

The receipt whereof I do hereby acknowledge and am fully satisfied, contented and paid. Have given, granted, bargained, sold, aliened, released, conveyed and confirmed, and by these presents do freely, clearly, and absolutely give, grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, convey and confirm unto him the said Abner Miller, his heirs and assigns forever,

One certain piece or parcel of Land, lying and being in Sandisfield, bounded as follows, Beginning at the South west corner of a certain piece of Land owned by Mr Francis Dodge, called the nine acres and an half piece, at a stake and stones about it running West on the line of the highway to about fifty eight rods to a stake, and stones about it adjoining lot No. 13 from thence running North on the line of said lot fifty one rods to a stake, and stones about it, running from thence Nearly East by South, to the North west Corner, of the nine acre and an half piece first described, belonging to the afore. Dodge to a stake and stones about it and from thence to the first mentioned bounds it being a part of the lot No. 14. Second Division. Said Land containing eighteen acres and twenty eight rods.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the before granted premises, with the appurtenances and privileges thereto belonging, to him the said Abner, his heirs and assigns, to his and their own proper use, benefit and behoof forever. And I the said Joseph Jones, for myself my heirs, executors and administrators, do covenant, promise and grant unto, and with the said Abner Miller, his heirs and assigns forever; that before and until the ensealing hereof, I am the true, sole, proper and lawful owner and possessor of the before granted premises, with the appurtenances. And have in me good right, full power and lawful authority to give, grant, bargain, sell, alien, release, convey and confirm the same as aforesaid; and that free and clear, and freely and clearly executed, acquitted and discharged of and from all former and other gifts, grants, bargains, sales, leases, mortgages, wills, entails, jointures, dowries, thirds, executions and incumbrances whatsoever.

Old Tavern Formed Link In Underground Railroad

(Special to The Evening News)

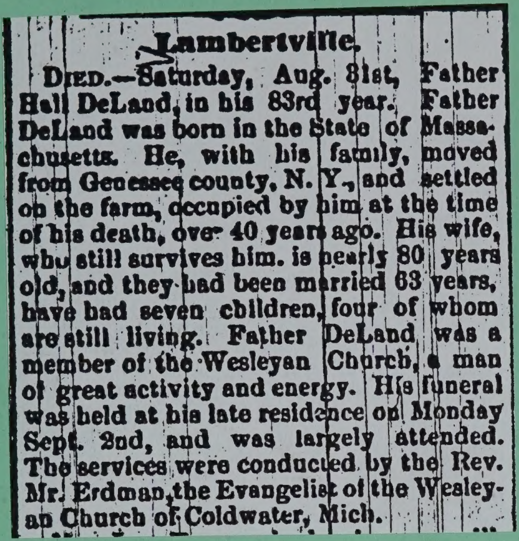
LAMBERTVILLE, Aug. 17 — On Summerfield Rd. west of Lambertville and near the intersection with M-151, a 111-year-old tavern, the Halfway House, stands on a high knoll surrounded by the tall pine trees planted by the original owner, Hall DeLand. The present owner, Lloyd A. Packard, purchased the property in 1913 and removed a wing from the building as a garage. This reduced the original 15 rooms to 10. Mr. and Mrs. Packard recently came from Toledo, are remodeling the interior of the house and plan to live there.

Farmers living near Dundee and Petersburg could not make the trip to the Toledo market in a matter of minutes as they can today over concrete and macadam highways. Roads were often hubdeep with mud and the slow pace of horses was made even slower as they floundered through as best they could. So it was at the Halfway House where those farmers stopped at night for food and shelter for themselves and their horses or they stopped to eat and let their teams rest before continuing on to market. Mr. Packard has been told that as many as 30 teams have been hitched around the tavern at one time.

The old tavern also has an interesting connection with the Underground Railroad. Mr. DeLand, who was in sympathy with the Negro slaves escaping from the South, sheltered them in the large cellar. The joists in that underground room were made of logs which are still bark-covered and in excellent condition. The floor has large flat stones with earth between and the foundation and partitions below are 18 inches thick—almost solid stones.

Mrs. Bert Steig of Temperace says her mother, then Miss Mary Gillespie, boarded at the Halfway House while teaching at the nearby DeLand school. Mrs. Steig recalls that her mother was 17 at the time. She often related how Mr. DeLand would start out during the night presumably with a covered load of farm produce. Well hidden in the wagon would be one or more Negroes whom Mr. DeLand would take under cover of darkness to another underground station nearer the Canadian border and freedom.

Mr. DeLand's relative and namesake, the late Hall DeLand of Lambertville, is well remembered by persons who have lived in the Lambertville area for some time.



Lambertville.

DIED.—Saturday, Aug. 31st, Father Hall DeLand, in his 83rd year. Father DeLand was born in the State of Massachusetts. He, with his family, moved from Genessee county, N. Y., and settled on the farm, occupied by him at the time of his death, over 40 years ago. His wife, who still survives him, is nearly 80 years old, and they had been married 63 years, have had seven children, four of whom are still living. Father DeLand was a member of the Wesleyan Church, a man of great activity and energy. His funeral was held at his late residence on Monday Sept. 2nd, and was largely attended. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Erdman, the Evangelist of the Wesleyan Church of Coldwater, Mich.

Correspondence of the Commercial.

DIED.—At her residence near this place April 20, Mrs. Laura DeLand, in the 81st year of her age. Funeral at the M. E. Church, Monday, at two o'clock, Sermon by the Rev. Sellick, text 23rd psalm 4th verse. Mrs. DeLand was born in the State of Vermont, April 3d, 1799, and moved to the State of New York in early girlhood. She married Hall DeLand, Nov. 22nd, 1816, with whom she lived happily for a period of 63 years. She came to Bedford 40 years ago. She has been for many years a consistent member of the Methodist Church, was loved and revered by all who knew her, and although aged and infirm, will be greatly missed in the community.

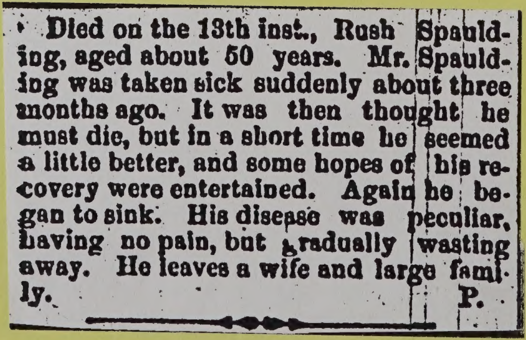
Died



Died on the 13th inst., Rush Spaulding, aged about 50 years. Mr. Spaulding was taken sick suddenly about three months ago. It was then thought he must die, but in a short time he seemed a little better, and some hopes of his recovery were entertained. Again he began to sink. His disease was peculiar, having no pain, but gradually wasting away. He leaves a wife and large family.

Carl DeLand, 58, Died in Hospital

MEN —Nov 26

Carl DeLand, aged 58 years, of Milan, former resident of Monroe, died in the Monroe Hospital Saturday afternoon. Mr. DeLand had suffered a stroke of paralysis and a heart attack while he was returning to his home in Milan from his work at the River Raisin Paper Company here. He had been employed at the River Raisin Paper Company as a steam fitter for the last 16 years. Ho was foreman of the steam fitting crew.

He had lived in Monroe up to about a year and a half ago when he moved to Milan. Before he was employed by the River Raisin Paper Company he had operated creameries in Dundee and Newport. He was born in Lambertville, January 27, 1876, and lived in Monroe county practically all his life.

He was married to Miss Grace Davis of Milan September 25, 1901, who, with two sons survive. The sons are Gordon of Carleton, and Davis of Toledo. He also leaves three brothers Nelson of Hale, Michigan, Ora of Centralia, Washington, and Grover of Tyler, Texas.

The body will be removed from Allore and Beams mortuary to the home in Milan this afternoon. Funeral services will be held in the home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. H. C. Stringer of the Milan Methodist Episcopal Church officiating. Burial will be in the 'arble Park cemetery in Milan.

MORTUARY

MRS. W. P. DELAND.

Mrs. William P. DeLand, of Chicago, entered into eternal rest at her home in that city on the morning of Wednesday, December 6th. Services in her honor were read by Rev. O'Meara in the Episcopal church in Monroe at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Two hymns, "Just As I Am" and "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say", Mrs. DeLand's own selections, were sung by Messrs Ed G J. Lauer, Frank Ilgenfritz and Fred Hoyt. The floral tributes were magnificent and the casket was carried to the family lot in Woodland by the following: Messrs. Henry T. Cole, H. A. Conant, C. B. Stoddard, F. A. Nims, William Hanson and Boyez Dansard. Miss Gertrude Manning was born and brought up here, spending her early life at Stump cottage, the Manning place on Monroe street. There, as the eldest of four sisters and two brothers, in this beautiful spot, with its garden paths and ancient trees, reminding one still of the solidity and peace of primeval life, she gathered that reserve of love, capability and unselfishness, which she was afterward to carry into the world, and which among the squalor, poverty and misery of a great city came like a healing drop. From a family that for many generations had been ardent Episcopalians, she has been all her life an active worker in that denomination. Her interest centred itself in the Sunday school, and not only among the children directly under her supervision, who became known as Bishop Harris' Banner class, but among the members of the entire school, she became the leading element and the one who taught them, planned their pleasures and brought comforts to their homes. Her practicality and cheer came to the rescue of this disheartened congregation after the fire of '67, it being largely due to her soliciting and influence that funds were raised for reconstruction. In September 1884, she was married to William P. DeLand, of Chicago, and moved to that city. Prominent among the charities to which she devoted herself, there was the work of the Gertrude club, which she established and of which she was made president. The club by that name in this city, working under the direction of Mrs. William Hanson, is a chapter of the same. There are also other chapters in Illinois and some starting in Ohio. This tells of a few scattering seeds sown by her life, but its garnered wealth throws a gleam of cheer around Christmas hearths, desolate except for her forethought; into poverty stricken hovels, where her hands have carried food and raiment; into hospitals where the sick and dying waited for her care and watched for her smile. In the close of such an existence, there is no touch of death; but the realization of the meaning of eternal life. "Charity suffereth long and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself; beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth." "That most excellent gift of charity, the very bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever liveth is counted dead before Thee."

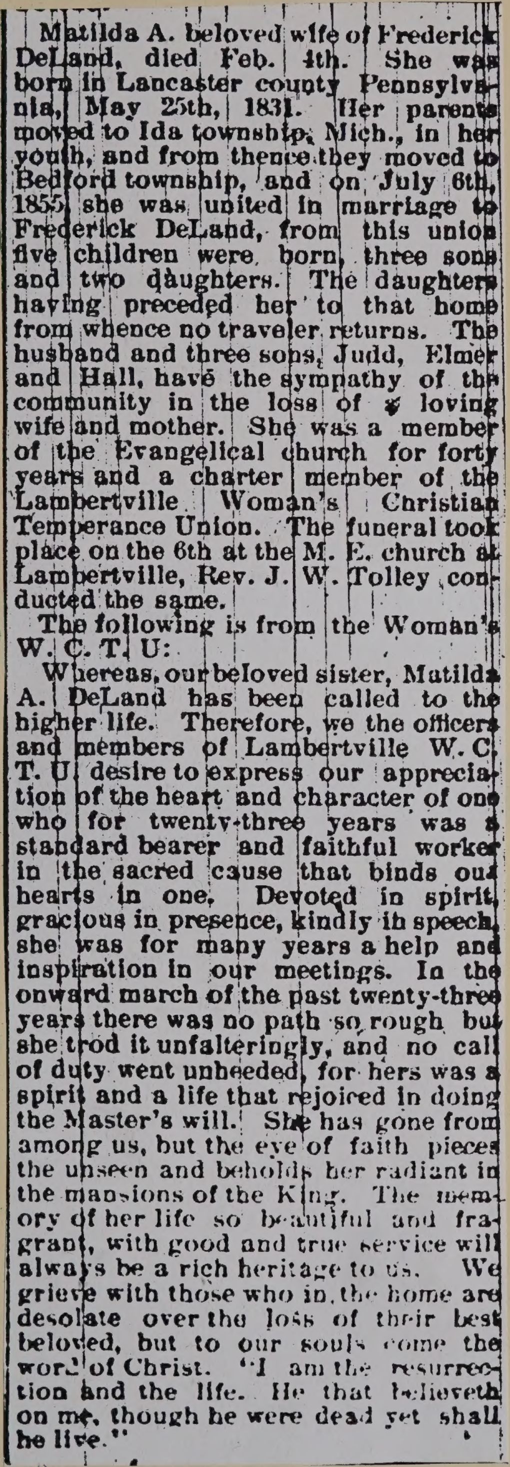
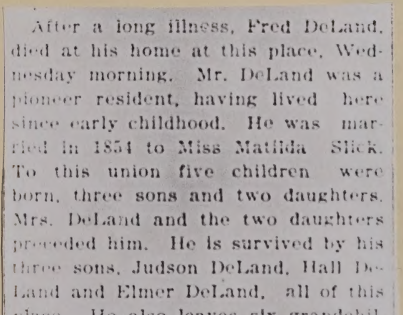
Monroe Record
13 February 1902



Matilda A. beloved wife of Frederick DeLand, died Feb. 4th. She was born in Lancaster county Pennsylvania, May 25th, 1831. Her parents moved to Ida township, Mich., in her youth, and from thence they moved to Bedford township, and on July 6th, 1855, she was united in marriage to Frederick DeLand, from this union five children were born, three sons and two daughters. The daughters having preceded her to that home from whence no traveler returns. The husband and three sons, Judd, Elmer and Hall, have the sympathy of the community in the loss of a loving wife and mother. She was a member of the Evangelical church for forty years and a charter member of the Lambertville Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The funeral took place on the 6th at the M. E. church at Lambertville, Rev. J. W. Tolley conducted the same.

The following is from the Woman's W. C. T. U:

Whereas, our beloved sister, Matilda A. DeLand has been called to the higher life. Therefore, we the officers and members of Lambertville W. C. T. U. desire to express our appreciation of the heart and character of one who for twenty-three years was a standard bearer and faithful worker in the sacred cause that binds our hearts in one. Devoted in spirit, gracious in presence, kindly in speech, she was for many years a help and inspiration in our meetings. In the onward march of the past twenty-three years there was no path so rough but she trod it unfalteringly, and no call of duty went unheeded, for hers was a spirit and a life that rejoiced in doing the Master's will. She has gone from among us, but the eye of faith pieces the unseen and beholds her radiant in the mansions of the King. The memory of her life so beautiful and fragrant, with good and true service will always be a rich heritage to us. We grieve with those who in the home are desolate over the loss of their best beloved, but to our souls come the word of Christ. "I am the resurrection and the life. He that believeth on me, though he were dead yet shall he live."



After a long illness, Fred DeLand, died at his home at this place, Wednesday morning. Mr. DeLand was a pioneer resident, having lived here since early childhood. He was married in 1854 to Miss Matilda Slick. To this union five children were born, three sons and two daughters. Mrs. DeLand and the two daughters preceded him. He is survived by his three sons, Judson DeLand, Hall DeLand and Elmer DeLand, all of this place. He also leaves six grandchildren and hosts of relatives and friends. The funeral was held at the M. E. church Friday, Rev. Tedman officiating. Interment in Lambertville cemetery.

Special to the Evening News

LAMBERTVILLE, June 20—Hall Loren DeLand died suddenly from a heart attack at 5:30 this morning at his home near Lambertville on the Ottawa Lake road. He was 73 years of age and had suffered several heart attacks during the past several weeks. This morning he had gone to the barn where he was stricken and was found a few minutes later by his wife.

Mr. DeLand was born in Lambertville May 1, 1866, and had lived at the same place his entire life. He married Miss Carrie Hoffman April 14, 1901. He was the oldest member of the I.O.O.F. lodge at Lambertville, a member of Eva Rebekah lodge and the Lambertville school board. He served three terms as supervisor of Bedford township and was a member of the Lambertville Methodist church.

He leaves besides his wife, a son, Dr. Charles DeLand, federal veterinarian, of Alpena; two daughters, Mrs. Orville Dohm of Erie and Mrs. Philip Lathrop of Jackson; a brother, Elmer of Adrian; one niece and one nephew.

The body has been removed to the Farnham funeral home and will be returned to the residence tomorrow. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Special to the Evening News

LAMBERTVILLE, June 21 — Funeral services for Hall Loren DeLand, who died from a heart attack early yesterday morning, will be held tomorrow afternoon. A service at the Farnham funeral home at 1:30 will be followed by a service in the Lambertville Methodist Church at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Lorne Carter will officiate and interment will be in the Lambertville cemetery. Members of the I. O. O. F. will be pallbearers. The lodge of Odd Fellows will conduct services at the grave.

Included among the survivors of Mr. DeLand are four grandchildren.

MRS. CARRIE K. DE LAND

(Special to The Evening News)

LAMBERTVILLE, April 1—Mrs. Carrie Katherine DeLand, aged 65 years, died Saturday evening at her Lambertville home. She had suffered a stroke Thursday.

Born in Blissfield September 7, 1879, she had resided here for 44 years. She was married to Hall DeLand April 14, 1901, the Rev. Mr. Silverthorne performing the ceremony at Temperance. Mr. DeLand died June 20, 1939. She was a member of the Eva Rebekah Lodge, the Methodist Church and the Educational Club.

Survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Bernice Dohm of Erie and Mrs. May Lathrop of Jackson; a son Charles of Lambertville; three brothers, Charles Hoffman of Palmyra, Daniel Hoffman of Dundee and Conrad Hoffman of Petersburg; six sisters, Mrs. Charles Dusseau of Lenawee Junction, Mrs. Katherine Bezaire of Wixom, Mrs. Earl Dentel of Adrian, Mrs. Albert Adler of Monroe, Mrs. William Hachman of Temperance and Mrs. Robert Kirtland of Adrian; and five grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Farnham funeral home at Temperance. Services will be held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Lambertville Methodist Church with the Rev. Asa Compton and the Rev. Lorne Carter of Dundee officiating. Interment will be in Lambertville cemetery. Grave services will be in charge of the Eva Rebekah Lodge and pallbearers will be members of the I O O.F. Lodge.

William and Elvira Smith

W. L. Smith Dies.

William L. Smith died at his home in Williamsfield, Monday, at the advanced age of nearly 90 years, and had he lived until July 20th of this year would have been a nonagenarian. His death was due to his great age, which had been prolonged by his habits of industry temperance and wholesome living. Indeed his is the first death in the family since he is survived by his wife, sons, Levi F., Fern, of Simons and Williamsfield, and a daughter, Mrs. Albert Cole, of Kinsman. Mr. Smith had been sick but one week, and his death came to him literally as a pleasant sleep. In his life he had seen almost a century's growth of this nation, beginning when John Quincy Adams was president of the United States. It is difficult for the younger generations to realize the space of ninety years, and to him who has lived through that period, in as useful and upright a manner in which Mr. Smith had, the satisfaction that follows as a reward to him and his posterity must be sweet indeed.

The funeral was held from the house Tuesday, Rev. McEwan, of the M. E. church, conducting the services. Mr. Smith had been a member of the M. E. church many years.

In his death the community has lost an esteemed and honored citizen.

Card of Thanks:—It is with heartfelt gratitude that we extend to all the friends and neighbors our thanks for their kindness and helpfulness during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father. Words can only fully express our meaning, but so far as we are thus able, we assure you that your kind acts will not be forgotten.

Mrs. W. L. Smith and Family.

WILLIAMSFIELD.

WILLIAMSFIELD, O., Oct. 12, 1880.

We have just returned from the funeral of our dear relative and neighbor Mr. N. H. Smith. He has been painfully sick for several weeks, but trust in Jesus was his solace and refuge. He was often heard to say during his sickness, "Praise God for His kindness to me!" Rev. B. C. Warner was with him several times durig his sickness. Early Monday morning he called each of his children to him, and talked to them one by one, advising and entreating them to prepare to meet him in heaven, and then turning his gaze toward the minister, I want you to talk to them too. He bade each one good bye, asked to be turned upon his back, folded his arms across his breast, closed his eyes, and calmly awaited death. Rev. Warner preached the funeral discourse from the text, "As in Adam all die, so in Christ shall all be made alive." We all prize our Pastor's compassionate, kind ways and words. Mrs. Smith continues quite ill, and this bereavement rests sorely upon her affectionate heart.

DONNA COUNTS, 1920-2008

Court clerk volunteered at zoo and elementary

Donna Counts, 88, a former chief deputy of the Toledo Municipal Court and an avid volunteer in her retirement, died Saturday in Waterford Commons, her daughters said.

She suffered complications from pneumonia, her daughter Cynthia Yerton said.

Mrs. Counts was born in Napoleon and graduated from Flatrock Township High School in 1937.

She moved to Monroe, where she worked as a clerk in the Monroe County court system, her daughter Sandra Korb said.

In the late 1950s, Mrs. Counts moved to Toledo and around the same time adopted Mrs. Korb, who was 3.

Mrs. Yerton was about 4 years old when Mrs. Counts adopted her. "She did a great job teaching us how to be independent and take care of ourselves," Mrs. Yerton said.

Mrs. Yerton said her mother was a great cook and encouraged her and her sister to participate.

"It wasn't just her making the stuff and us watching," she said. "She was always encouraging us to get our hands into it too."

Mrs. Korb said she considered Mrs. Counts her mother in every sense of the word.

DONNA COUNTS, 1920-2008

Court clerk volunteered at zoo and elementary

Donna Counts, 88, a former chief deputy of the Toledo Municipal Court and an avid volunteer in her retirement, died Saturday in Waterford Commons, her daughters said.

She suffered complications from pneumonia, her daughter Cynthia Yerton said.

Mrs. Counts was born in Napoleon and graduated from Flatrock Township High School in 1937.

She moved to Monroe, where she worked as a clerk in the Monroe County court system, her daughter Sandra Korb said.

In the late 1950s, Mrs. Counts moved to Toledo and around the same time adopted Mrs. Korb, who was 3.

Mrs. Yerton was about 4 years old when Mrs. Counts adopted her. "She did a great job teaching us how to be independent and take care of ourselves," Mrs. Yerton said.

Mrs. Yerton said her mother was a great cook and encouraged her and her sister to participate.

"It wasn't just her making the stuff and us watching," she said. "She was always encouraging us to get our hands into it too."

Mrs. Korb said she considered Mrs. Counts her mother in every sense of the word.

"She was very loving and caring," Mrs. Korb said. "She took very good care of us and tried to work too."

When Mrs. Counts' husband, Atlee, died in 1963, she raised her two daughters alone.

Mrs. Counts, who loved to travel, took her daughters to Washington shortly after their father died.

Mrs. Yerton, who was 7 at the time of the trip, said she has vivid memories of seeing the Declaration of Independence, visiting the Capitol, and the Jefferson Memorial. "It was something I never forgot," she said. "It made history really real."

After Mrs. Counts retired in 1989 from Toledo Municipal Court after 24 years, she kept busy by volunteering at the Kidney Foundation of Northwest Ohio, the Toledo Zoo, and Glendale-Feilbach Elementary School, where she was a teacher's aide.

"She couldn't sit still," Mrs. Korb said. "She was one that always had to be doing something."

In her mid 70s, Mrs. Counts took a bus trip around the border of the United States with family and friends.

Mrs. Yerton said her mother visited almost every state.

She said Mrs. Counts loved seeing other places and learning new things. She also enjoyed history. "You always learned something when you went with her," Mrs. Yerton said.

Mrs. Counts also enjoyed gardening.

She is survived by her daughters, Sandra Korb and Cynthia Yerton; brother, Norman Franz; eight grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

Visitation is at Bersticker-Scott Funeral Home after 10 a.m. tomorrow, where funeral services will follow at 1 p.m.

The family suggests tributes to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, The Salvation Army, Project Hope, Operations Smiles, 700 Club, Hillsdale College, Cherry Street Mission, In Touch, and Turning Point.
